A Christian Father's Guide to Restoring Lost Love

"For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found."

-Luke 15:24

You've poured your heart, soul, and strength into serving The Lord's Church.

Why, then, does it feel like your own children are slowly drifting away from you? If you're asking this question, you're not alone.

After losing his firstborn son to suicide, one pastor set on a decade-long mission to find out where he went wrong.

Today, he travels the country helping Christian men rediscover rich, authentic, Spirit-Led relationships with their wives, their teens, and even their young adult children.

Join us for a FREE SEMINAR, lunch, and fellowship. It's never too late to restore what's lost.
